KING'S HAWAIIAN BAKERY & RESTAURANT BRINGS SPECIAL HOLIDAY FAVORITES TO SOUTH BAY DINERS THIS SEASON

- King's Hawaiian Bakery & Restaurant announces its holiday menu items, available now through December 31st.
- Special bakery items from the famous King's Hawaiian Bakery available December 1-31.

SOUTH BAY, Calif., (December 5, 2011) – King's Hawaiian Bakery & Restaurant in Torrance is wishing its customers a "Mele Kalikimaka" (Merry Christmas) with festive new holiday menu items, featuring limited-edition dishes like succulent stuffed pork chops with a guava glaze, and a pineapple-ginger marinated rib eye. These featured dishes, which are offered in addition to the full menu at King's Hawaiian Bakery & Restaurant, are available now through December 31.

"The holiday season brings families together to indulge in good food and build lasting memories. We want to encourage our customers to take a break from the kitchen and holiday shopping rush and come in with their families to enjoy these special holiday dishes with our family," said Mark Taira, CEO and President of King's Hawaiian Bakery & Restaurant.

The new Holiday Menu items are available every day for breakfast, lunch and dinner, and include:

- Eggs Benedict: Toasted English muffin, Canadian bacon, poached eggs and hollandaise sauce. ($10.95)
